
Kernelized Support Vector Machines (SVMs)

An extension of Linear SVCs that allows for more complex models that are not defined simply by hyperplanes in the input space.

Linear Models and Nonlinear features